

Opera con Brio Britten Tour
First Stop: Aldeburgh, England

Pre-concert Dining at Snape Maltings

The shingle beach on coast at Aldeburgh

Scallop Shell Memorial to Britten on which passers-bys are invited to sit. The inscription from Britten's Peter Grimes reads: "I hear those voices that will not be drowned."

Strolling the gardens at Britten and Pear's home, the Red House, now a library and museum

Making Plans

A 90th Birthday Celebration

Next Stop: Battle and Glyndebourne Opera

Off to Glyndebourne for Billy Budd

Garden Views at Glyndebourne

Last Stop: Oxford and Garsington Opera

Dining during the Intervals at Garsington

Britten's A Midsummer Night's Dream at Garsington

View from the top of the Garsington Theatre

Trip to Blenheim Palace and its gardens

Trip to the Cotswolds